Education is at the heart of the Vimy Foundation's mission. Our experiential and commemorative youth programs have reached thousands of students over the past fifteen year.

The Vimy Foundation wants to know how we can continue to support you to teach your students about the First World War, leadership, and civic engagement.

We've created a short survey to learn a little more about your teaching needs and the interests of your students. The survey should take no more than 5 minutes to complete but will have a major impact on current and future programs and resources.

Access the survey by clicking on the links below:
