

Veterans know your: GI Bill Benefit Opportunities for Apprentices

Veterans who are enrolled in
The Laborers Training School
Apprenticeship Program may qualify to have your Living Expenses covered.

HIGHLIGHT INCLUDE

Who's Covered?

- Veterans, Reservists enrolled in our DAS and DOL approved Apprenticeship program.

What Benefits Do I get?

The Post-9/11 GI Bill benefit are a monthly payment reimbursement for your On-Job-Training (OJT).

How Do I Get Benefits?

You'll need to apply for benefits at:
<https://www.va.gov/education/how-to-apply>
and work with The Laborers Training School Admin Staff.

FOR MORE
INFORMATION VISIT: www.va.gov/education

Title 38 USC 3679(e) Compliance

The Southern California Laborers Training School has a policy in place that will allow an individual to attend or participate in a program of education if the Chapter 31 or Chapter 33 Beneficiary provides the school with a "Certificate of Eligibility (COE).