

Tangata Whenua

Introduction

This chapter provides the plan user with an historical account of the occupation by tangata whenua of the Wairarapa district, namely Ngāti Kahungūnu ki Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Wairarapa. It provides a basic understanding of the important connection, relationships and responsibilities that these two iwi and a significant number of hapū, have to this whenua (land).

The Chapter also provides plan users with information pertaining to the respective Treaty of Waitangi (Te Tiriti o Waitangi) settlements and maps showing areas of interest for Ngāti Kahungūnu ki Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Wairarapa.

This chapter offers practical examples of how Treaty of Waitangi (Te Tiriti o Waitangi) principles can be implemented alongside best practice engagement advice. This chapter provides practical examples of how Treaty of Waitangi (Te Tiriti o Waitangi) and the Wairarapa Treaty Settlement Acts provisions can be implemented alongside best practice engagement advice.

For the purpose of the District Plan, Tangata Whenua applies to uri (descendants) of Ngāti Kahungūnu ki Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Wairarapa. Ngāti Kahungūnu ki Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Wairarapa acknowledge that for many Wairarapa Māori, Mana Whenua is also referred to as Wairarapa uri whose mana derives from the whenua over centuries acknowledging their whakapapa to the whenua.

It is also acknowledged that in addition to the Mandated Iwi Authorities and Statutory Boards referred to in this chapter, there are other authorities, boards and trusts on behalf of, or as mana whenua that own and/or administer Māori land, Marae and other land and places of significance to Māori.

Te Tiriti o Waitangi/The Treaty of Waitangi

Under section 8 of the RMA, the Wairarapa District Councils, along with landowners and resource management decision-makers, must ensure that the principles of Treaty of Waitangi (Te Tiriti o Waitangi) are taken into account when making resource management decisions.

The Wairarapa District Councils, recognise that the Treaty of Waitangi (Te Tiriti o Waitangi) is a living document to be interpreted in a contemporary setting. The following principles have been developed to be relevant for resource management processes under the RMA.

Overarching principles that underpin/guide iwi engagement

Mātāpono (Principles)	Whakamārama - Brief Explanation
Kaitiakitanga	The responsibility of the two iwi and collective hapū, to protect, maintain, care and enhance the mauri and ora of the taiao (environment) within the Wairarapa district. This is done through a te ao Māori way of being using traditional resource management tools.
Rangatiratanga Leadership and co-management	The inherent right under Te Tiriti o Waitangi, to protect the environment, wāhi tapu and taonga through kaitiakitanga practices. The inherent right through whakapapa and reiterated under Te Tiriti o Waitangi to protect the environment, including, but not exclusive to whenua, awa, moana, wāhi tapu and taonga tuku iho through kaitiakitanga practices. Active and meaningful participation of both iwi in the decision-making process.
Manaakitanga	The expression of aroha, hospitality, generosity, reciprocity by maintaining relationships with both people and the whenua. Ka puta ko te orangatonutanga.
Customary Rights	The customary rights exercised according to Ngāti Kahungūnu ki Wairarapa and/or Rangitāne o Wairarapa tikanga including rights to occupy land and rights in relation to the use of land or other natural or physical resources.
Tikanga	Principles and rules that govern the correct and right way of interacting with each other and the natural resources within the environment,
Whanaungatanga	Acknowledges that everything in the natural world is connected through whakapapa and the duty of care to our tuakana, natural resources and environment,
Taha wairua	Acknowledges the unseen and unspoken energies. A sense of spiritual connection to places and people ie your maunga, tipuna etc.

Ko Mākirikiri te marae	Ko Te Oreore te marae

Rangitāne trace their descent from the explorers Kupe and Whātonga (a rangatira of the Kurahaupō waka and the grandfather of the eponymous ancestor Rangitāne).

Rangitāne tradition records their centuries-long history of settlement in Wairarapa and Tamaki nui-ā-Rua before 1840 and their special association with many places including the Wairarapa Lakes, eastern coast, and Te Tapere Nui o Whātonga (also known as Seventy Mile Bush).

The Wairarapa and Tararua District councils acknowledge Rangitāne as manawhenua of Wairarapa and Tamaki Nui a Rua through their whakapapa to Hāmua and Rangiwhaka-ewa.

Rangitāne trace their connection to the coastal marine area from Te Aho a Maui (Cape Turnagain) to Turakirae back to the earliest Māori ancestors. The archaeological sites of early Māori coastal settlement, such as those in Palliser Bay, date from the period of Rangitāne occupation. Traditionally, Rangitāne maintained their ancestral relationship with the coastal area for at least 28 generations through migrations to seasonal fishing camps, and knowledge of ancestral relationships and usage rights. The associations to the coastal marine area include the interests of Te Hika o Pāpāuma.

Rangitāne Values

- Rangitāne ki runga - Rangitāne above (that which aligns to the celestial knowledge)
- All things pertaining to Rangitāne whakapono, ngā atua, te orokohanga, Te tīmatanga, tātai arorangi
- Rangitāne ki raro - Rangitāne below (that which aligns to terrestrial existence)
- The people, those who laid the path for us to follow, those who are here today and continue to work toward realising Rangitānetanga and those who will come tomorrow to carry the legacy forward
- Rangitāne ki waho - Rangitāne without (that which is yet to be discovered)

- Those things that will eventually be a normal every day and essential part of Rangitāne culture and technological advancement
- Rangitāne ki roto - Rangitāne within (that which is inherent)
- Those characteristics, aspects, knowledge, sayings, histories, whakapapa, which are uniquely and inherently Rangitāne

Rangitāne Settlement Principles

- Kotahitanga – to develop a post-settlement governance model that embraces kotahitanga, so that over time, the people of Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tamaki nui-ā-Rua work as one;
- Mana Motuhake – although kotahitanga is sought, it is acknowledged that there are situations when it is appropriate to respect the ongoing mana and autonomy of Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tamaki nui-ā-Rua and their beneficiaries. This may include social, cultural, and commercial matters;
- Te Mana Tika – to ensure that the post-settlement governance model promotes getting the best governors and managers to achieve iwi aspirations; and
- Rangitāne Rangatiratanga – to develop a PSGE model that enhances the identity of Rangitāne as an iwi in Wairarapa and Tamaki nui-ā-Rua.

Rangitāne Settlement Journey

In 2010, Rangitāne chose to establish a new, single-purpose entity to hold the mandate for Treaty settlement negotiations on behalf of Rangitāne.

Rangitāne o Wairarapa Inc and Rangitāne o Tamaki nui-ā-Rua Inc (“the Rūnanga”), who collectively represent both iwi on iwi matters, agreed to the establishment of the Rangitāne Settlement Negotiations Trust (“the Trust”) for the specific purpose of negotiating the settlement of Rangitāne historical claims.

Mandate hui were held in 2011. The Crown recognised the Trust’s Deed of Mandate on 11 October 2011.

The Trust and the Crown then entered into negotiations for the comprehensive settlement of Rangitāne historical Treaty claims. Terms of Negotiation were signed by both parties in August 2012, after which the Trust and Crown began negotiating towards an Agreement in Principle.

The Agreement in Principle, which recorded the general nature and scope of the Deed, was signed between the Trust and the Crown on 28 March 2014.

On 11 May 2016, the Trustees of both Rangitāne Settlement Negotiations Trust, and Rangitāne Tū Mai Rā Trust (the PSGE) initialled a Deed of Settlement. This Deed then went out for ratification by iwi members. Followed by an official ceremony held at Mākirikiri Marae in Dannevirke on 6 August 2016.

On 14 August 2017, the Rangitāne Tū Mai Rā (Wairarapa Tamaki nui-ā-Rua) Claims Settlement Act 2017 was given Royal Assent by Her Excellency The Rt Hon Dame Patsy Reddy GNZM, QSO, DStJ, Governor-General of New Zealand.

Rangitāne consider their lands, mountains, rivers, wetlands, and lakes as taonga, as part of their identity, as significant sources of food and other resources, and as integral to their spiritual and material well-being. Rangitāne Sites of Significance can be viewed at www.tumaira.nz.

Te Taiao

Rangitāne understand that their environment has been degraded over time through deforestation, introduction of exotic species and pests, agricultural and industrial waste, road works, and drainage works, and these changes have detrimentally affected the relationship of Rangitāne communities to many of their urupā (burial places) and sacred sites and have been a source of distress and grievance for Rangitāne.

Historic environmental legislation before the late 1980s did not provide for the recognition of Māori cultural values and practices and limited the ability of Rangitāne to exercise kaitiakitanga (or stewardship) over their natural environment or taonga.

Rangitāne claim their rightful governance and planning position on all environmental planning, management, and governance in their tribal rohe.

Ngā Rūnanga o Rangitāne

Rangitāne o Wairarapa Inc was first established with the introduction of the Runanga Act 1989. Rangitāne kaumātua Kuki and Jim Rimene were some of the first to rally behind the iwi entity to ensure that Rangitānetanga was being catered for. In those early days the focus was researching whakapapa and education. There was a strong demand for many to learn te reo and in particular to recapture the local Rangitāne kōrero. It was a busy time as Rangitāne kaumātua were also putting together their Waitangi Tribunal claim (WAI 175) and working with their Rangitāne whanaunga in Manawatu, Tamaki Nui a Rua, and Wairau to establish their iwi entities. Soon after that the four takiwa (branches) of Rangitāne formed Te Runanganui o Rangitāne committee which was a forum to discuss common issues. Another project was developing at the time and that was the establishment of the Kurahaupo Waka Society which brought together Rangitāne, Ngāti Apa, and Muaupoko.

Rangitāne o Tamaki nui-ā-Rua Incorporated which is based in Tamaki nui-ā-Rua (Dannevirke) provide a range of free health and cultural services for whānau in their community from Norsewood to Eketāhuna.

These services range from social workers, Tamariki ora nurses, Te Ohu Auahi Mutunga quit coaches, AoD counsellors, asthma management support, mental health support, cultural and whakapapa support, te reo support, specialised counselling services, environmental leadership and economic development to name a few.

Statutory Relationships

Under the Rangitāne Deed of Settlement – Statutory Acknowledgements that Local Government Councils of Wairarapa and Tararua along with the Regional Councils of Hawkes Bay, Horizons Regional Council, and Greater Wellington Regional Council are expected to have a statutory relationship with Rangitāne Iwi through the Post Settlement Governance Entity Rangitāne Tu Mai Ra Trust. At a local level this relationship is working very well and while Horizons is the first and only regional council to respond to this obligation, hence a closer working relationship has ensued. Greater Wellington and Hawkes Bay are yet to respond.

Mandated Iwi Authority – Rangitāne Tu Mai Ra Trust

As the mandated Iwi Authority Rangitāne Tu Mai Ra Trust legislated under its own Act - Rangitāne o Wairarapa, Rangitāne o Tamaki Nui a Rua Deed of Settlement 2017 has the responsibility to protect and enhance the mana of Rangitāne Iwi (Wairarapa-Tamaki nui a Rua) across political, social, environmental, and economic platforms, hence consultation with tangata whenua under the RMA should be directed to the Trust at info@tumaira.nz.

Map of Area of Interest

The following map sets out the Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tamaki Nui-ā-Rua area of interest used for the purposes of negotiations with the Crown for the settlement of the Rangitāne o Wairarapa and Rangitāne o Tamaki Nui-ā-Rua - historical Treaty claims.

Ngāti Kahungunu Ki Wairarapa

Ngāti Kahungunu iwi and hapū living in Tāmaki nui-a-Rua and Wairarapa trace their origins back to the Tākitimu voyaging waka and its leader, Tamatea-arikini. According to renowned Wairarapa scholar Te Mātorohanga, it was “curiosity that brought Tamatea-arikini and the Tākitimu waka to Aotearoa...he came as a chief; there was no cause of wrong doing towards his people or his islands at Hawaiki; nothing but his desire to see the island of his ancestors, of Kupe, of Toi.” Tākitimu, said Te Mātorohanga, was a very sacred waka.

“...A canoe of the ancients, a canoe of old, a canoe of thy offspring, a canoe of the gods, a very sacred canoe is my ‘Tākitimu’...”

Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa Tāmaki nui-ā-Rua tradition records their whakapapa and settlement through centuries of take-raupatu, take-tīpuna, take-tuku, ahi-kaa and ringa kaha and hold special association with many places around the Wairarapa (inland and coastal).

The Wairarapa District Councils acknowledge Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa as mana whenua of the Wairarapa through their whakapapa to the many inland and coastal hapū of Wairarapa.¹
