The Virginia Quilt Museum seeks an intern to assist with creating children's activities for their project Stitching Together History: 250 Quilts Commemorating the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Virginia Quilt Museum is located in the historic Silver Lake Mill in Dayton, Virginia. VQM is 5 miles from James Madison University, 4 miles from Bridgewater College, and 7 miles from Eastern Mennonite University. The Museum is working towards a large exhibition opening on July 4, 2026 commemorating the Semisesquicentennial of the American Revolution. This exhibition will feature 260 small quilts. The quilts have been made by 136 artists from across the country. The quilts are already at the museum and have been professionally photographed.

This internship will focus on creating 4-8 activities for children who visit the exhibition. These activities can include scavenger hunts, coloring pages, low cost make and take crafts, and more. These activities should be geared towards elementary aged children that visit with their families or other groups outside of school settings. The selected intern will work under the supervision of VQM Executive Director Alicia Thomas and will need to be able to work independently on tasks once instructions are given.

This person needs to be very comfortable with a wide array of technology, including Google docs and sheets, Microsoft word and excel, canva, and others. This project is best geared towards a graduate student who is familiar with the basics of museum studies and education. Undergraduates with past internship experience in museums will also be considered.

To apply please send a cover letter and resume to director@vaquiltmuseum.org by January 1, 2026 with the subject line STH Children's Activities Internship. Interviews will take place via zoom or in person between January 6 - 23, 2026.
