I am the Resurrection and the Life”

Ever since Adam & Eve fell into sin, and death entered the world, human beings have wept over the death of their loved ones, crying out in grief and desperation. We can understand how people who are grieving at the loss of someone they love may complain, “How could God allow him or her to die?” Maybe you have cried out to God in such a prayer. Such cries go all the way back to Adam and Eve after their fall. And God has always heard those cries. And we know that God loves our loved ones infinitely more than we possibly can. God was, and is, willing to give His life for them, so much does He care about them!

Ezekiel, today, speaks a prophetic word from God about resurrection. “I will open your graves and have you rise from them, ...Then you shall know that I am the LORD.” Today, we hear Jesus saying, “I am the resurrection and the life.” He’s the fulfillment of Ezekiel’s prophecy, and he is the answer to all of our prayers. But when Jesus heard that Lazarus was sick, he delayed for a few days! because he knew what he was going to do. He was going to raise Lazarus to life again, though he had been in the tomb for four days. People asked, “Couldn’t Jesus have done something?” Yes, he is the only one who could have done something, and now he is doing it! Lazarus was revived and brought back to life—to this life—not yet raised to heavenly glory. But Jesus rose with a glorified body; the marks of the nails and the spear were visible, but he was in no pain. His wounds were signs of his infinite love for us! We must hold on to that faith no matter how terrible things may be; we must hold on to that Christian joy!

This year's theme is from 1 Corinthians 10:31

"Yo Soy la Resurrección y la Vida"

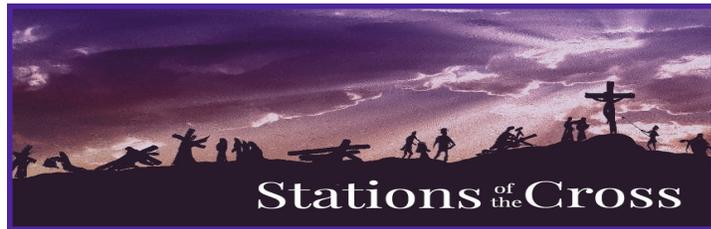

Desde que Adán y Eva cayeron en pecado y la muerte entró en el mundo, los seres humanos han llorado la muerte de sus seres queridos, clamando con dolor y desesperación. Podemos entender cómo las personas que están de duelo por la pérdida de un ser querido pueden quejarse: "¿Cómo pudo Dios permitir que muriera?" Tal vez usted haya clamado a Dios en una oración similar. Tales clamores se remontan a Adán y Eva después de su caída. Y Dios siempre ha escuchado esos clamores. Y sabemos que Dios ama a nuestros seres queridos infinitamente más de lo que nosotros podemos. Dios estuvo, y está, dispuesto a dar su vida por ellos, ¡tanto se preocupa por ellos!

Ezequiel, hoy, pronuncia una palabra profética de Dios sobre la resurrección: "Abriré sus sepulcros y los haré levantarse de ellos... Entonces sabrán que yo soy el SEÑOR". Hoy escuchamos a Jesús decir: "Yo soy la resurrección y la vida." Él es el cumplimiento de la profecía de Ezequiel, y es la respuesta a todas nuestras oraciones. Pero cuando Jesús oyó que Lázaro estaba enfermo, ¡se demoró unos días! porque sabía lo que iba a hacer. Iba a resucitar a Lázaro, aunque había estado en la tumba durante cuatro días. La gente preguntaba: "¿No podría Jesús haber hecho algo?" Sí, él es el único que podría haber hecho algo, ¡y ahora lo está haciendo! Lázaro fue revivido y devuelto a la vida, a esta vida, aún no resucitado a la gloria celestial. Pero Jesús resucitó con un cuerpo glorificado; las marcas de los clavos y la lanza eran visibles, pero no sentía dolor. Sus heridas eran signos de su infinito amor por nosotros. ¡Debemos aferrarnos a esa fe sin importar cuán terribles sean las cosas; debemos aferrarnos a esa alegría cristiana!
