They shouted again, “Crucify him!”

Palm Sunday recalls the joyful entrance of Our Lord Jesus Christ into Jerusalem, amid all the shouts of “Hosanna to the Son of David!” Yet only a few days later, many of the people shouted, “Crucify him!” and “We have no king but Caesar!” And when given a choice by Pontius Pilate of him granting freedom to either Barabbas, a notorious criminal, or Jesus, the most gentle man ever to walk the face of the earth... they voted for Barabbas to be freed, and called for Jesus to be crucified!

Every day, we exercise the freedom that God has given us, by choosing what we will do, what we will say, and how we want to treat other people. Sometimes we choose to “crucify” them, not literally, but in many other ways: Insults. Gossip. At times, even with physical violence. The enemies of Jesus influenced the crowds to shout against Jesus, and those who knew and loved Jesus were too frightened to defend Him. So He was crucified. If we feel ashamed of our weakness and sins, we can take comfort from Saint Peter, who was so afraid of the mob that he swore that he didn't know Jesus! When the rooster crowed, he wept bitterly. But the risen Jesus later entrusted the Church to him!

Many people are still trying to “crucify” Jesus, and good people who respect God are still being persecuted. As the crowds shout against Our Lord, we hope that we will always walk with Him. Today, we should pray for peace, and say, “Let it begin with me.” The world is hungering for the peace and joy that only God can give.

Volvieron a gritar: "¡Crucifíqueno!"

El Domingo de Ramos conmemora la entrada gozosa de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo en Jerusalén, entre todos los gritos de: "¡Hosanna al Hijo de David!" Sin embargo, tan solo unos días después, muchas de esas mismas personas gritaban: "¡Crucifíqueno!", y "¡No tenemos más rey que el César!" Y cuando Poncio Pilato les dio a elegir entre conceder la libertad a Barrabás—un criminal notorio—o a Jesús—el hombre más manso que jamás haya pisado la faz de la tierra—, ¡votaron para que Barrabás fuera liberado y exigieron que Jesús fuera crucificado!

Cada día ejercemos la libertad que Dios nos ha dado al elegir qué haremos, qué diremos y cómo trataremos a los demás. A veces elegimos "crucificarlos"—no literalmente, sino de muchas otras maneras—con insultos, con chismes y, en ocasiones, incluso con violencia física. Los enemigos de Jesús influyeron en la multitud para que gritara en su contra, mientras que aquellos que lo conocían y amaban estaban demasiado atemorizados para defenderlo. Y así, Él fue crucificado. Si nos sentimos avergonzados de nuestra debilidad y de nuestros pecados, podemos hallar consuelo en San Pedro, quien tuvo tanto miedo de la turba que juró no conocer a Jesús. Cuando cantó el gallo, lloró amargamente. ¡Pero, más tarde, Jesús resucitado le confió su Iglesia!

Muchas personas siguen intentando "crucificar" a Jesús, y las personas de bien que respetan a Dios siguen siendo perseguidas. Mientras las multitudes claman contra Nuestro Señor, nosotros esperamos caminar siempre junto a Él. Hoy debemos orar por la paz, y decir: "Que comience conmigo." El mundo anhela la paz y la alegría que solo Dios puede dar.
