"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar,
and to God what belongs to God."

Is there anything in the world that does not belong to God?

If all things were created by God, does He not own everything?

The obvious answer to these questions might help us learn a lesson from Jesus who replied to the Pharisees who were trying to trap him, "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God." The Pharisees must have been shocked when Jesus turned the tables on them. If Caesar's image is on the coins, then it seems that every coin belongs to him. Of course, everything in the entire world belongs to God! Our bodies, our homes, our physical and mental abilities, our talents, our family members and friends, our clothes—it all belongs to God. And God has made us stewards of His many gifts, so that we can use them at the proper time to build up His kingdom. If we use them wisely and generously, we will be blessed and entrusted with more. If we waste them or bury them, we will lose what we have, and receive no reward. We have power to share what we have been given, or to hoard whatever we can get our hands on. Jesus said that whoever seeks to save his life (by taking care of only himself) will actually lose his life; and whoever loses his life in order to serve Jesus will actually save his life. We can begin to be good stewards by saying a prayer of thanks to God in gratitude for His gifts to us. Thanksgiving is always right and just.

2026 ANNUAL APPEAL

The Church depends on the support and generosity of its members to feed the hungry, shelter the homeless, educate its youth, and care for the elderly.

Our parish goals for this year's Annual Appeal are:

	Assessment	Collected	Balance
OLP	$ 79,311	$ 55,500	$ 23,811
St. Anthony's	$ 5,802	$ 5,802	$ 0
OLR	$ 4,718	$ 4,718	$ 0

This year's theme is from 1 Corinthians 10:31

“Pagad al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios.”

¿Existe algo en el mundo que no pertenezca a Dios?

Si todas las cosas fueron creadas por Dios, ¿no es Él el dueño de todo?

La respuesta obvia a estas preguntas puede ayudarnos a aprender una lección de Jesús, quien respondió a los fariseos que intentaban tenderle una trampa: “Paguen al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios.” Los fariseos debieron quedar atónitos cuando Jesús invirtió la situación. Si la imagen del César está en las monedas, entonces parece que cada moneda le pertenece a él. ¡Por supuesto, todo en el mundo entero pertenece a Dios! Nuestros cuerpos, nuestros hogares, nuestras capacidades físicas y mentales, nuestros talentos, nuestros familiares y amigos, nuestra ropa: todo pertenece a Dios. Y Dios nos ha hecho administradores de sus muchos dones, para que podamos usarlos en el momento oportuno a fin de edificar su reino. Si los usamos con sabiduría y generosidad, seremos bendecidos y se nos confiará más. Si los desperdiciamos o los enterramos, perderemos lo que tenemos y no recibiremos recompensa alguna. Tenemos el poder de compartir lo que hemos recibido o de acaparar todo lo que caiga en nuestras manos. Jesús dijo que quien busque salvar su vida (preocupándose solo por sí mismo) en realidad la perderá; y quien pierda su vida para servir a Jesús, en realidad la salvará. Podemos comenzar a ser buenos administradores elevando una oración de acción de gracias a Dios por los dones que nos ha concedido. Dar gracias es siempre justo y necesario.
