Solemnity of Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe

The "Halleluia" chorus in Handel's oratorio "Messiah" has the words: "King of kings, and Lord of lords, and He shall reign forever and ever!" Though "Messiah" is usually performed around Christmas time, today would be a fitting time to hear that chorus as we celebrate Christ the King! He is our king, and we know that our true joy —in fact, our life—is to serve Him faithfully just as He has served us and draws us to Himself and to the joys of His heavenly kingdom. But we are constantly tempted to forget our Lord! Since we cannot see Him, we are easily distracted from Him, we easily forget Him—to our detriment.

We need to remember, to be watchful for Him. He once used the example of ten virgins awaiting the groom's arrival from a wedding. When he arrived late at night, the five wise virgins lit their lamps, welcomed him, and went in to the feast, whereas the five foolish ones (who had let their lamps go out) were left outside in the dark, which is where we will be if we forget who our King is. So, we gather every Sunday, the Lord's Day, just as the first disciples did on the day Jesus rose from the dead, and just as Christians have done ever since then, to remember what God has done for us, to remind ourselves of what it is that we believe, and to make Jesus present in the Eucharist. Jesus told us to "Do this in memory of me," and so we do just that. And our King is present! Considering the temptation to forget our Lord, we can see how necessary it is to recite the Creed so that we can hear ourselves, as individuals and as the Church, declaring our faith, passing it on to the next generation, and even making our faith stronger by doing so.

Solemnidad de Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

El coro "Aleluya" del oratorio "El Mesías", de Händel, contiene estas palabras: "¡Rey de reyes y Señor de señores, y reinará por los siglos de los siglos!" Aunque "El Mesías" suele interpretarse durante la época navideña, ¡hoy es un momento muy apropiado para escuchar este coro mientras celebramos a Cristo Rey! Él es nuestro Rey, y sabemos que nuestra verdadera alegría consiste en servirle fielmente, tal como Él nos ha servido a nosotros, atrayéndonos hacia sí y hacia los goces de su Reino celestial. ¡Pero estamos constantemente tentados a olvidar a nuestro Señor! Como no podemos verlo, fácilmente nos olvidamos de Él.

Necesitamos recordar, permanecer atentos a su presencia. En una ocasión, Jesús utilizó el ejemplo de diez vírgenes que esperaban la llegada del esposo tras una boda. Cuando este llegó, ya entrada la noche, las cinco vírgenes sensatas encendieron sus lámparas, le dieron la bienvenida y entraron al banquete; en cambio, las cinco insensatas—que habían dejado apagar sus lámparas—se quedaron fuera, en la oscuridad. Por eso, nos reunimos cada domingo—el Día del Señor—tal como hicieron los primeros discípulos el día en que Jesús resucitó, y como han hecho los cristianos desde entonces: para recordar lo que Dios ha hecho por nosotros, para reafirmar nuestra fe y para hacer presente a Jesús en la Eucaristía. Jesús nos pidió: "Haced esto en memoria mía", y eso es precisamente lo que hacemos. ¡Y nuestro Rey está presente! Ante la tentación de olvidar a nuestro Señor, comprendemos lo necesario que es recitar el Credo: así, tanto individualmente como en cuanto Iglesia, proclamamos nuestra fe, la transmitimos a la siguiente generación y, al hacerlo, la fortalecemos aún más.

Prayers of the Rosary

SIGN OF THE CROSS
In the name of the Father, † and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED
I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified; died, and was buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from there He shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

OUR FATHER
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name: Thy kingdom come: Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evil. Amen.

HAIL MARY
Hail Mary, full of grace; the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

GLORY BE TO THE FATHER
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

HAIL, HOLY QUEEN
Hail, holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope! To thee we do cry, poor banished children of Eve, to thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn, then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus; O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.
