GALLOWAY

This Genealogical History of the House of Galloway, from A.D. 1235 to the present time, is the result of many years' research, and is now published for the first time. It is hoped that it will be found to be a correct account of the descent of the Royal Family of Scotland from the Ancient Kings of Alba, the Celtic Kings of Scots, the Kings of Norway, and the Ancient Earls of Carrick and Galloway, and also from the Ancient Earls of Ulster and the Kings of Connaught. The Author has to thank the Lord Lyon King of Arms for the permission granted to him to make use of the Records of the Lyon Office, and also the Officials of the Public Record Office, the British Museum, the Register House, Edinburgh, the Advocates' Library, Edinburgh, and the Signet Library, Edinburgh, for the facilities afforded him in the examination of the Records in their charge. The Author has also to thank the Rev. Charles Rogers, LL.D., F.S.A. (Scot.), for his kindness in allowing him to make use of his valuable collection of Scottish Genealogical Works.
