FLOS TAKES PART IN 3 DAYS OF DESIGN

Copenhagen, 18-20 June 2025

Copenhagen, 18 June 2025 – Flos, the historical Italian manufacturer of high-end designer lamps and innovative lighting solutions, is pleased to announce its participation in the 12th edition of 3daysofdesign, Scandinavia's most important and inclusive annual design festival, an event that attracts industry professionals and design enthusiasts from all over the world.

At this year's edition of 3daysofdesign, Flos will showcase its new products in two different locations: the Flos Scandinavia Showroom in the historical naval arsenal of Kuglegården, and the Martin Asbaek Gallery, a remarkable contemporary art gallery in central Copenhagen that will be taken over by Flos for the festival.

In its permanent showroom at Kuglegårdsvej 15, right next to its sister company Louis Poulsen's headquarters, Flos will introduce The Glowing Track, a stunning modular lighting system designed by Flos Architectural to combine versatility, innovation, high performance and sophisticated design into a single solution.

At the Martin Asbaek Gallery at Bredgade 23, Flos will hold a temporary exhibition of its new Decorative collections. After recently previewing at Milan's Salone del Mobile, six extraordinary new collections designed by some of the world's best-known creative minds will be showcased in Scandinavia for the first time. These include: the evocative modular glass system Linked by Michael Anastassiades; the Maap wall lamp by Erwan Bouroullec, made from Tyvek and as pliable as a sheet of paper; the modular glass pendants Luce Sferica and Luce Cilindrica by Ronan Bouroullec, defined by their lightness and poetry; the Nocturne family of floor, wall, and suspension lamps in glass and aluminium by Konstantin Grcic, a perfect fusion of craftsmanship and industrial technology; and finally the re-edition of Seki-Han, a rare wooden floor lamp designed by legendary master Tobia Scarpa in 1963.

Taking inspiration from this year's 3daysofdesign theme, 'Keep it real', the Flos installation will be dictated by a desire to give centre stage not only to the products, but equally to what lies behind them, honouring each designer's individual expression: the thought, imagination, fragility and strength of the creative process.
