

3 days of design

Celebrating Italian Creativity and Innovation

2025

Programme of events

The Italian Residence, Fredericiagade 2 – 1310 Copenhagen K

Wednesday 18 June - h 17.00

"Glass Masters and Glass Design"

Presentation by Chiara Squarcina
Scientific Director – Fondazione Musei Civici di Venezia

An exclusive exhibition showcasing works crafted at the Abate Zanetti School of Glass (Murano), to discover the artistry and craftsmanship that define Venetian glassmaking.

A light refreshment will follow the event.

Thursday, 19 June – h 17:00

"Roman Design in Europe" followed by "Eat, Make and Cycle"

Projects presented by CNA of Rome, with contributions from the Rome Chamber of Commerce and in collaboration with Cultura.

An insightful presentation exploring the landscapes, traditions, and products of Roman design companies, and how the Eternal City influences contemporary design.

A tasting of typical regional products will follow, celebrating the culinary excellence of Rome.

Friday, 20 June – h 11:30

"Randomness doesn't exist!"

Presentation by Prof. Giovanni Ottonello
Art Director – Istituto Europeo di Design

In a world increasingly overwhelmed by images, are we still able to grasp their meaning, their purpose?

Art, design, cinema and fashion have always contaminated each other through a shared language that we will attempt to uncover.

A light aperitif will be served at the end of the event.

These events are open to the public.

Please confirm your participation no later than June 12th, 2025, by writing to the following email address: copenhagen.rsvp@esteri.it
When confirming, kindly specify which day(s) and which event(s) you wish to attend.