

Romo Unveils New Copenhagen Showroom Launching During 3 Days of Design

Romo is delighted to unveil its new showroom in Copenhagen's vibrant Nordhavn district during this year's 3 Days of Design. Designed by Tonen Agency, the space has been thoughtfully conceived to reflect Romo's commitment to timeless style, innovative textiles, and exceptional craftsmanship.

The new showroom offers visitors an immersive environment in which to experience Romo's latest collections, alongside a curated selection of designs from across The Romo Group's six brands. Tactile textures, refined colour palettes, and contemporary patterns come together to create a harmonious and highly considered interior.

Designed as both an inspirational destination and a working showroom, the space reflects Romo's design ethos and provides a welcoming setting for designers and industry professionals to engage with the collections.

The showroom be open from Wednesday 10th June, Pakhus 47, Sundkaj 125 st., 2150 Nordhavn

ABOUT ROMO

Founded in 1902, Romo is a British family-run business now in its fifth generation. With decades of experience, an unparalleled passion for design, and meticulous attention to detail, the company has grown into an international market leader in luxury interiors.

Bringing together six brands, Romo, Black Edition, Kirkby Design, Mark Alexander, Villa Nova, and Zinc Textile, the company continually pushes creative boundaries to craft innovative fabrics, wallcoverings, and accessories.
