WELCOME TO JC MASSIE FIELD

Good evening everyone and welcome back to a very hot and humid JC Massie Field for our Men's League1 Ontario Premier Division match against Oakville. Our visitors, formerly known as Blue Devils, will forever be a part of our history as they were our very first opponents in the League back in 2022.

Our visitors today have hit a rough patch of late and are winless in their last 4 matches with 2 wins and 2 draws. The last time we clashed they edged us 1-0. It was a frustrating day for us and we had the lions share of possession but all the knocking on the door but we just couldn't break through. They have slipped down the table to 8th with a 5-3-4 record. They are still only 5 points below us in 4th so we have to be on our toes today.

Since that defeat in Oakville we have gone on a 7 match unbeaten streak (including our cup quarter final win against Unionville Milliken) and find ourselves just 2 points off the top.

Since we were last here when we beat North Toronto Nitros 2-0, we have been on our travels and beat out St Catharines Roma Wolves 3-2, tied with our closest rivals Scrosoppi 3-3 and beat out Burlington 2-1. If we could somehow learn to not make life difficult for ourselves imagine how many points clear we would be at the top!!! There's still time though, but Woodbridge at the top have lots of games in hand unfortunately. So we shall see what happens. We need to keep winning and block out the noise. No point worrying about things we can't control.

The Women's side are continuing their march to the top of the table and earned a 1-1 draw NDC Ontario on Friday night. We are probably the only team who haven't been beaten by them in a home and away season! A huge achievement and we are 1 point behind them and are on a record 12 match unbeaten streak in the League.

Our next Men's match is on Sunday, July 20th when we take on St Catherines Roma Wolves with the match kicking off at 2:00 pm. The match is part of a double header with the Women's team who kick off at 6 when they take on North Mississauga..

Enjoy the game and cheer the lads as we look to earn 3 points and a vital win to stay in contention with the top teams.
