WELCOME TO JC MASSIE FIELD

Good afternoon everyone and welcome back to JC Massie Field for our Men's League1 Ontario Premier Division match against St Catharines Roma Wolves. Our visitors, are back in the Premier Division after their short stay in the Championship last season.

Our visitors today have had a good campaign this year and have possibly surprised a few and are sitting well above the relegation zone. They also have firepower as only Vaughan and Alliance have scored more goals than them this season. They have the same amount as us. Unfortunately for them, they have shipped plenty of goals and have conceded the same amount and have a goal difference of 0. In their last 3 games alone they have scored 10 and have also conceded 10.

We remain unbeaten, now in 8 games, although we did leave it late against Oakville. A towering header from Ryley Wishart in the 85th minute earned us a point in a tight match which could have gone either way. This was Ryley's 1st goal since his goal against North Toronto Nitros on August 24, 2022 in the play off quarter final. It's been a long time coming. We sit in 4th after that draw tied on points with Scrosoppi and 1 behind 2nd placed Alliance United so a win today would do our prospects a lot of good.

If we are unbeaten today we will tie our 9 match unbeaten streak which we set last year.

We find ourselves in a strange situation today with the Men kicking off before the Women today so please feel free to stick around to cheer them on as they look to keep pace with NDC at the top.

Our next Men's Premier Division match here is on Wednesday when we take on bottom place side FC London. Kick off here is at 8:00 pm. Come out and support the lads to an important 3 points.

Enjoy the game and cheer the lads as we look to earn 3 points and a vital win to stay in contention with the top teams.

Milestones

Justin Yarde made his final appearance for the club, coming on as an 84th minute substitute in our home match in 2023. This was his only appearance that season.

Feargod Ozomba gained his only red card for the club in the away match earlier this month.

Roma Wolves’ only scored their 1st goals against us in the match earlier this month.

We have yet to drop a point to our opponents although the matches are typically very close.
