WELCOME TO JC MASSIE FIELD

Good evening everyone and welcome to a JC Massie Field for our League1 Ontario Premier Division match against North Mississauga. With our visitors fighting for their Premier Division lives you can be sure it is going to be a tough battle today..

Our visitors today are sitting 8th in the table just 2 points clear of Alliance United who are sat in the relegation play off place. They will be doing everything in their power to stay out of there this year after having to win that match last year against Scrosoppi to keep their place in the division. They have been in decent form of late with just a 4-0 defeat against powerhouse North Toronto Nitros ending a 4 game unbeaten run.

Since we were last here we have had a tremendous run and, other than penalty heartbreak in the League Cup, remain unbeaten. After a battling 2-2 draw against Woodbridge Strikers here with the highlight being a Teagan Handley “olympico” we beat Alliance United in a tight 3-2 match and also Vaughan Azzurri 2-0. Last Friday we took a point in the top of the table clash against NDC Ontario. Bryanna Caldwell scoring deep in stoppage time to earn the point. This makes us the only team to be unbeaten in a season against the “pro” side since the home and away schedule started up again last season. A superb achievement.

Also, while we have been on our travels, our top scorer for the year, Ally Rowe, has tied the all time goalscoring record for the Women’s team scoring her 16th in the away win at Vaughan. She is now tied with Brianne Desa, Cloey Uddenberg and Courtney Chochol for the top but you have to believe she will break that before the season is over.

We now have two more away games as we travel to North Mississauga on Saturday. Kick off is 7:00 pm and then on Wednesday 30th we face Waterloo United with a 7:30 pm start.

Following that we wrap up the season here at JC Massie Field with a match against Vaughan Azzurri. Kick off for that is 6:00 pm.

The equation is simple enough. We need to take all 12 points and wait and see if NDC can also run the table. If we do and they don’t we become Champions. It sounds simple but, as we all know, it really isn’t. Every game is a metaphorical cup final.

Enjoy the game and make some noise as we aim for the big win.
