WELCOME TO JC MASSIE FIELD

Good evening everyone and welcome back to JC Massie Field for the final time this season for our Men's League1 Ontario Premier Division match against Alliance United. We haven't beaten Alliance since 2023 so we need to get the win today to end the season on a high. We have yet to win at home though against them so, it will be a challenge.

Our visitors come here today sitting just below us in 4th place just 1 point behind with a game in hand in what has become a really tight division in the middle of the standings. Woodbridge Strikers and Scrosoppi have the top 2 pretty much secured and they went toe to toe last night to see who would blink first in the title race. The score is not known at the time of writing.

The last time we were here we outplayed and soundly beaten 3-0 by a Sigma side who simply wanted it more and, in the process, secured their position in the Premier Division next season.

After that we travelled to Scrosoppi in the League Cup semi final and, once again, endured troubles from the penalty spot. Aidan Hugo gave us a lead in stoppage time at the end of the first half but we couldn't hold on and the hosts pulled level and sent it to penalties. Scrosoppi were faultless, we weren't unfortunately. The lads gave their all but we fell short. There's always next year.

One thing is sure, Doneil has worked hard to mould a side here and, despite some awful results, he has done a great job. We lost a lot of players at the end of last year and, to be sat in 3rd going in to our last match deserves a lot of credit..

It would be remiss to not mention our Champions from the Women's team. After a dominant season where they went about their business quietly and having a ton of fun both on and off the field, they lifted the crown 2 weeks ago. Then, last weekend, they travelled to Alberta to take on League1 Canada's best and became the first side from Ontario to take the Inter Provincial Championship. Congratulations you Mentality Monsters, you have done the club proud.

Enjoy the game.
