Lourdes Pilgrimage 2026 - Members of our parish are on the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes and have taken our intentions with them. In return we pray for their safe journey and a pleasant stay in Lourdes.

The Feast of Transfiguration- on Thursday 6th mass at 12'o clock. Although this is not a holy day of obligation its wonderful if you can, to come to holy mass on this special feast.

Electronic Notice board - so many people say they didn't know that there was a Catholic church here. With the help of our parish communication team, Tiwa, Pamela, and Anita we are looking at the possibility of a large digital notice board to replace the current light box. Such a digital notice board could be seen clearly from the road and give a lot of important information. We will keep you informed of developments.

Bingo – On 8th August at 12:30pm in the parish hall. Bingo £5 a book, raffle tickets £1 a strip. All welcome (tea and refreshments provided).

March for Life - taking place on Saturday 5 September 2026. A group will be travelling by train to London to participate in the March. If you are interested in attending and want further details, contact admin@stjamesandallsouls.com Bishops from across the country will also be attending this year. Our group will travel by train and attend Mass at Westminster before participating in the March. If you are not able to participate, please keep this important cause in your prayers.
