A Weekend in a beautiful setting in the far South West of England-

The Sister of Mary Morning Star at Lynton, Devon (www.marymorningstar.co.uk) are holding a 'Come and See Weekend' for any young women 18-35 who are discerning a vocation to the contemplative life. I've visited the Sisters there and found it a wonderful community in a beautiful setting. Tiverton Parkway Station is quite a distance. A standard return ticket to Manchester is at least £100. If any one does want to go (perhaps with a friend) let Fr Ian know - there is the possibility of help with the cost. The sisters are very welcoming and there is no obligation. Spaces are limited and the dates are 16th-18th October. To book a place srsmorningstar@gmail.com.

Catechetical Sermons

Starting this Sunday Fr Ian plans to preach a series of catechetical sermons. The sermons will follow the organisation of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The intention of the sermons is, over the period of about one year, to provide an exposition of all aspects of our Catholic Faith. They will be interrupted occasionally by the great feasts of the Church such as Easter, Christmas and Pentecost. For those who would like to look at the Catechism of the Catholic Church - it is available online. In particular:

(Catechism on Vatican Website in a number of languages) and
