

SRI LANKA – July 2025

CONTENTS

SRI LANKA TO IMPLEMENT PROPERTY TAX IN 2027?.....	1
PROPOSED PROPERTY TAX: UNCERTAINTY AND LACK OF CLARITY SPARK DEBATE.....	1

SRI LANKA TO IMPLEMENT PROPERTY TAX IN 2027?

This article reports that Sri Lanka's government intends to introduce a property tax in 2027 in line with the reform agenda agreed with the IMF. The article explains that to assist with the valuation of properties, data from valuation departments will be digitalised and combined with details from the Sales Price and Rent Register.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

Sri Lanka to implement property tax in 2027? What does the IMF document say? - Newswire

PROPOSED PROPERTY TAX: UNCERTAINTY AND LACK OF CLARITY SPARK DEBATE

This article reports that there is currently public debate about the government's proposed property tax 2027 as part of the IMF reform agenda. The debate mainly concerns the form that the tax will take. The article looks at the property taxes currently collected in the country.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

Proposed property tax: Uncertainty and lack of clarity spark debate | The Morning