

IRELAND – July 2025

CONTENTS

LOCAL PROPERTY TAX GIVES BACK TO WICKLOW	1
INCREASE IN FUNDING TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES IN 2026 ANNOUNCED AS A RESULT OF LOCAL PROPERTY TAX REVALUATION	1
CUTTING PROPERTY TAX HAS ‘JUST BLOWN A €10M HOLE IN THE COUNCIL BUDGET’	2
DUBLIN CITY COUNCIL FREEZES LOCAL PROPERTY TAX RATE UNTIL 2029	2
THE IRISH TIMES VIEW ON THE LOCAL PROPERTY TAX: HOMEOWNERS CAN PAY A BIT MORE	2
LOCAL PROPERTY TAX TO RISE ACROSS MOST OF DUBLIN IN 2026	2
THE PROS AND CONS OF THE LOCAL PROPERTY TAX.....	2

LOCAL PROPERTY TAX GIVES BACK TO WICKLOW

This article reports that Wicklow County Council will receive an additional €4.45 million annually through allocation from the government Local Property Tax fund.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

The Greystones Guide | Local Property Tax Gives Back To Wicklow

INCREASE IN FUNDING TO LOCAL AUTHORITIES IN 2026 ANNOUNCED AS A RESULT OF LOCAL PROPERTY TAX REVALUATION

This article reports on an announcement by Local Government Ministers that Local Property Tax baseline funding to local authorities will increase by €42 million in recognition of the LPT revaluation that will take place this November and be effective from the 2026 liability year.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

Increase in funding to Local Authorities in 2026 announced as a result of Local Property Tax revaluation

CUTTING PROPERTY TAX HAS ‘JUST BLOWN A €10M HOLE IN THE COUNCIL BUDGET’

This article looks at the setting of Local property Tax by local councils – the legislation allows the rate to be kept the same or cut/increase it by up to 15%. The article reports that Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown Council have voted to implement a full 15% cut and considers the effect that this will have on the level of services the council will be able to provide.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

Cutting Property Tax has ‘just blown a €10m hole in the council budget’ | Irish Independent

DUBLIN CITY COUNCIL FREEZES LOCAL PROPERTY TAX RATE UNTIL 2029

This article looks at the implications of the announcement that Dublin City Council are freezing the LPT rate until 2029.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

Dublin City Council Freezes Local Property Tax Rate Until 2029 - memesita.com - Memesita

THE IRISH TIMES VIEW ON THE LOCAL PROPERTY TAX: HOMEOWNERS CAN PAY A BIT MORE

This article examines the belief that there is no political appetite to increase LPT even at the cost of local services. The article looks at those municipalities that have already set their rates.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

The Irish Times view on the local property tax: homeowners can pay a bit more – The Irish Times

LOCAL PROPERTY TAX TO RISE ACROSS MOST OF DUBLIN IN 2026

This article reports that Dublin City Council are to increase the rate of LPT by 15% in 2026, the maximum allowed.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

Local property tax to rise across most of Dublin in 2026

THE PROS AND CONS OF THE LOCAL PROPERTY TAX

There will be a nationwide revaluation of Local Property Tax this November. This article lists the pros and cons of the LPT from the perspective of all interested parties.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

International Property Tax Institute

IPTI Xtracts- The items included in IPTI Xtracts have been extracted from published information. IPTI accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the information or any opinions expressed in the articles.

The pros and cons of the local property tax

International Property Tax Institute

IPTI Xtracts- The items included in IPTI Xtracts have been extracted from published information. IPTI accepts no responsibility for the accuracy of the information or any opinions expressed in the articles.