

ISRAEL – January 2026

CONTENTS

WILL ISRAEL'S PROPOSED PROPERTY TAX CRASH AGAIN?	1
--	---

WILL ISRAEL'S PROPOSED PROPERTY TAX CRASH AGAIN?

This article related to tax credits and extra tax breaks for reservists but also reports that a draft bill was published in December that proposes to reinstate an annual property tax of 1.5% on land, starting in 2026. The previous tax of this nature was reduced to 0% in 2000, as enforcement proved difficult. The article gives details of how the tax would be implemented.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

Will Israel's proposed property tax crash again? | The Jerusalem Post