

IRELAND – May 2026

CONTENTS

OWNERS OF BACK-GARDEN MODULAR HOMES FACE SECOND LOCAL PROPERTY TAX CHARGE, SAYS REVENUE	1
IMF SAYS GOVERNMENT SHOULD LIFT LOCAL PROPERTY TAX, REIN-IN DISCOUNT VAT RATES, AND PULL MORE LOW-PAID WORKERS INTO TAX NET	1

OWNERS OF BACK-GARDEN MODULAR HOMES FACE SECOND LOCAL PROPERTY TAX CHARGE, SAYS REVENUE

This article provides clarification that self-contained modular homes, erected within the curtilage of domestic properties, be treated as separate dwellings for Local Property Tax and attract an additional tax assessment.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

Owners of back-garden modular homes face second local property tax charge, says Revenue – The Irish Times

IMF SAYS GOVERNMENT SHOULD LIFT LOCAL PROPERTY TAX, REIN-IN DISCOUNT VAT RATES, AND PULL MORE LOW-PAID WORKERS INTO TAX NET

This article looks at the recommendations of the International Monetary Fund following its official mission to Ireland, which include increasing local property taxes and reining-in discount VAT rates. The article examines the recommendations in detail.

The article can be accessed via the following link:

IMF says Government should lift local property tax, rein-in discount Vat rates, and pull more low-paid workers into tax net | Irish Independent