Annex № 3 to the Terms of Use

SECONDARY LIQUIDITY RISK DISCLOSURE

This disclosure is provided pursuant to MAS Notice SFA 04-N13 (s.99H SFA) and applies to all Accredited, Institutional and Expert Investors.

a. Market Maker discretion. The Market Maker may suspend or decline purchase requests at any time. There is no assurance that you will be able to sell your Debentures when desired.

b. Discount Price. The Discount Price is a preset formula that may be below prevailing fair value. Accepting the Liquidity Option may therefore realise a loss.

c. Illiquidity. No organised secondary market exists for these Debentures. Apart from the Liquidity Option, opportunities to exit early may be limited or non-existent.

d. No negotiation. Investors cannot submit counter-offers or otherwise influence the Discount Price.

e. Credit risk unchanged. A Transfer does not affect the underlying credit risk of the Issuer; the Buyer (Market Maker) assumes that risk upon settlement.

Investors must acknowledge this Annex electronically each time they initiate a Liquidity Option order.
