

ANA HERNÁNDEZ ROMO - BIO

Ana Hernández Romo (Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico, 1998)

Completed a degree in Animation and Digital Arts at Tecnológico de Monterrey, Guadalajara campus, Mexico.

Expanded her training through the course Portafolio y Autopromoción led by Catalina Restrepo, Mexico (2026).

Studied Painting at Parsons School of Design, New York, United States (2023).

Her work has been exhibited in the United States and Mexico.

Recent group exhibitions include Art as Power, Blind Insect Gallery, Portland, United States (2025).

Participated in Pintura como Pretexto, Casa Masua, Guadalajara, Mexico (2024).

She was part of Julio Azul: el Faro que nunca se apaga, Palacio Municipal de Zapopan, Zapopan, Mexico (2024).

She participated in the Open Studio Exhibition, Parsons School of Design, New York, United States (2023).

She participated in the Seattle Art Fair with Galería María Elena Kravetz, Lumen Field Event Center, Seattle, United States (2025).