

EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT & DISASTER RECOVERY TRAINING 2026

Awareness level training courses

Welcome to our 2026 training catalogue.

Our updated awareness level courses have been tailored to provide a firm foundation for government agencies and service providers working in emergency management and disaster recovery in WA.

For information on course content, training dates, target audience, and guidance on how to sign up, please click the 'learn more' links.

WAYS TO TRAIN:

E-Learning

Face-to-Face

Video

Introduction to Emergency Management

An introductory overview of WA's State Emergency Management Framework, including legislation, policies, and hazards.

Learn more.

Working in Disaster Recovery

Examine the objectives of recovery, recovery programs, governance structures and recovery roles as well as self-care strategies.

Learn more.

Introduction to Disaster Recovery

Learn more about disaster recovery, its key concepts and principles, and how recovery activities help impacted individuals and communities.

Learn more.

Engaging the Community in Disaster Recovery

Examine the importance of community engagement, key principles, approaches and challenges those working in this space may experience.

Learn more.

Disaster Recovery Funding Arrangements Western Australia (DRFAWA) Video Module

Understand the basics of the DRFAWA and the different types of assistance available.

Learn more.

These training products were funded by the Commonwealth Government of Australia with support from the WA State Emergency Management Committee through the Natural Disaster Resilience Program.

Please note: some courses require completion of preceding modules.

Please refer to individual course information for list of prerequisites.