Executive Summary

There is no denying mobile's dominance. comScore found that the average American adult spends 2 hours, 51 minutes on their smartphones every day. And eMarketer expanded that report to include tablets and found the total time spent by mobile users is 4 hours, 5 minutes per day. Mobile now accounts for 65% of total digital media consumption. While the majority of our mobile time is spent in social networks, Informate reported that the average American smartphone user goes through 32 texts and 6 phone calls per day, accounting for a total of 26 minutes and 21 minutes, respectively. An even closer look by eMarketer shows we spend 10% of our time interacting with email on mobile devices compared with 22% of our time texting¹.

MOBILE TIME PER DAY

■ The Importance of SMS Marketing

89% of consumers want to receive text messages from their favorite brands. Yet only 48% of businesses have adopted SMS as a way to reach their customers². The most cited reason for the low adoption rate is that brands simply don't know how to get started.

THIS GUIDE PROVIDES DETAILS YOU NEED TO KNOW WHEN CONSIDERING ADDING AN SMS PROGRAM TO YOUR MARKETING MIX, INCLUDING MOBILE ACQUISITION TACTICS, WEEKLY BROADCAST MESSAGE EXAMPLES, AND TRANSACTIONAL AND TRIGGERED MESSAGES.

When done correctly, SMS will increase engagement and revenue. And the fact that it is delivered directly to your customer's most personal device provides new opportunities for marketers. For example, you can use SMS to re-engage subscribers who have become disengaged with email or you can reward your most loyal customers with exclusive offers. With Listrak's SMS platform, you will be able to segment specific target audiences to create highly-personalized messages while coordinating SMS with your email, paid social and other channels. Best of all, because you are sending to a targeted list, your carrier CPM rates will be much lower. You'll spend less but will drive even more revenue.

IT TAKES SHOPPERS 90 MINUTES TO OPEN AN EMAIL BUT ONLY 90 SECONDS TO OPEN A TEXT MESSAGE – AND SHOPPERS DON'T HAVE TO BE ONLINE TO READ YOUR MESSAGES.

Methodology

We monitored the SMS marketing programs of over 100 brands for eight months. The messages in this guide are the real messages we received. Please note that regulations may have changed or may not have been followed. Be sure to follow all regulations when sending SMS messages for consent, carrier approval, rules, and legal language required in messages to avoid fines or cancellation.

PROMOTE SMS IN POP-UP, HEADER, FOOTER, ACCOUNT CREATION PAGE AND CHECKOUT PAGE TO MAXIMIZE EXPOSURE.

Tip

Instead of collecting mobile numbers, promote your keyword and short code and let the subscribers initiate the conversation. This will save resources as there is potentially no API involved and it takes away the double opt-in if done correctly.

DON'T JUST DUPLICATE MESSAGES IN EMAIL AND SMS. USE SMS TO ADD URGENCY AND EXCLUSIVITY TO MESSAGE.

Tip

SMS should enhance email messages, not duplicate it. If running a sale, promote your sale daily in email messages but use SMS to offer mobile subscribers early access and to send a reminder a few hours before the sale ends.

SECTION 4

HOW LISTRAK CAN HELP YOU GET STARTED

■ Getting Started

There is a lot to know before you implement an SMS marketing program. SMS is highly regulated and each carrier can have its own rules. If you don't remain compliant, you will be fined and your program may be shut down. To make it even more challenging, the regulations are constantly changing so it can be difficult to remain current. Visit the CTIA - The Wireless Association, or CWTA if you're in Canada, for more details.

Carriers not only have their own rules, but they also have their own CPM fees and approval processes and timelines. You need a good understanding of how the carriers work in order to avoid unexpectedly high costs and/or delays.

LISTRAK CAN HELP. WE PROVIDE THE NECESSARY DOCUMENTS AND COMPLIANCE GUIDANCE REQUIRED TO ACHIEVE CARRIER APPROVAL AND CAMPAIGN SET-UP.

We also provide a dedicated short code for an elevated level of security, control and customer experience. We can even help write your SMS copy to ensure compliance within the 160 character limit in the U.S. and 140 character limit in Canada while promoting the right brand, message and CTA.
