The Perfect Time to Plant Trees, Shrubs & Evergreens

Now is the perfect time to plant shrubs, trees, and evergreens! With ideal growing conditions, getting them in the ground now helps establish strong roots for healthier, more vibrant growth. Whether you're looking to add structure, privacy, or year-round greenery, planting now sets you up for lasting success.

Let us take care of the planting for you. Speak with a Sipkens team member and we'll handle everything you need—from locates and mulch to the initial watering. We're here to make the process easy and ensure your new plantings get off to the best possible start.
