

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
December 8, 2025

Young Canadian Biathletes Ready for Junior IBU Cup in Europe

CALGARY—A young group of Canadian biathletes are set to fire onto the Junior IBU Cup this month, Biathlon Canada announced on Monday.

The young squad that includes five women and five men will hit the start line at Junior IBU Cup events in Goms, SUI and in Martell–Val Martello, ITA prior to the holiday break.

This year's team features a determined and ambitious group of under-21 athletes who continue to push their development while testing their skills against the best junior biathletes in the world. With a strong blend of emerging talent and competitive drive, these athletes are driven to gain valuable international experience as they move toward the elite level of the sport.

Male Athletes

- Luke Hulshof – Calgary, Alta.
- Rory Wilson – Calgary, Alta.
- William Brindle – Bragg Creek, Alta.
- Benjamin Brousseau – Canmore, Alta.
- Max Nilsson – Collingwood, Ont.

Female Athletes

- Sage Taylor – Calgary, Alta.
- Flora Conk – Calgary, Alta.
- Aliah Turner – Prince George, B.C.
- Nadia Klafki – Calgary, Alta.
- Moir Glassford – Calgary, Alta.

"This young group is disciplined, dedicated and determined to make their mark on the international stage," said Clayton Whitman, Performance Pathway Director, Biathlon Canada. "The Junior IBU Cup is an essential developing ground for the next generation of elite biathletes, and this group has earned the opportunity to challenge themselves while matching their training against the top juniors in the world."

The Junior IBU Cup series brings together the top youth biathletes from around the globe, offering high-intensity racing.

Biathlon Canada congratulates all selected athletes and wishes them the best as they represent the nation with pride and determination in Europe.

The Junior IBU Cup begins December 11-14 in Goms, SUI.

Biathlon Canada is the national governing body for biathlon in Canada, responsible for supporting the growth and development of the sport at all levels. Biathlon Canada's mission is to empower biathletes to thrive at every level. Trailblaze with us.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Chris Dornan

Media and Public Relations

Biathlon Canada

T: 403-620-8731