PARENT EDUCATION CONFERENCE

August 20, 2026

Schedule of the Day

JUMPSTART WELCOME

Dear Classical Academies Families,

Welcome to the annual JumpStart Parent Education Conference! We are so glad you are here and hope today leaves you feeling encouraged, equipped, and inspired as we begin a new school year together.

JumpStart is one of the many ways we live out our commitment to partnering with parents. Today's conference features more than 50 breakout sessions designed to provide practical ideas, helpful resources, and meaningful support for your family's educational journey.

I also encourage you to visit our Sponsor Expo in the main hallway. Many of our sponsors are offering raffles, giveaways, and special promotions throughout the event. We are incredibly grateful for their generosity and partnership, which help make JumpStart possible.

This year's sponsors include: Vejar's Design & Build, Inc., Catilize Health, Logic of English, Rainbow Resource Center, Young, Minney, and Corr, City Wide, and Renaissance.

On behalf of our Board of Directors and the entire Classical Academies team, thank you for spending part of your day with us. I hope you enjoy the conference, connect with other families, and leave with something valuable to carry into the year ahead.

In partnership,
Kurtis Indorf
Chief Executive Officer

LYNDSAY MORRIS

TEACH THE BRAIN, CHANGE THE WORLD: BRAIN-BASED PARENTING STRATEGIES FOR A HAPPIER HOME?

Parenting is a journey filled with opportunities for growth, connection, and joy. Understanding how the brain works unlocks powerful tools to support your child or teen’s emotions and your own, helping you respond with greater patience, clarity, and confidence. By gaining a deeper awareness of emotional patterns, you’ll be better equipped to model self-regulation and create a calm, connected home environment. Gain practical insights to develop resilience, improve communication, strengthen family connections, and set the stage for a successful school year—both for your child and yourself.

Lyndsay Morris, M.Ed., is a best-selling author and the founder of Generation Wellness. She is a global leader in helping families and schools cultivate calm, connection, and resilience. A former teacher, school counselor, and Educator of the Year, as well as an international speaker, Lyndsay has empowered over 500,000 students, parents, and educators with simple strategies that foster emotional well-being and personal growth. Lyndsay is known for her engaging and practical approach, making brain science accessible and easy to understand and apply in daily life. She believes that small, consistent practices create lasting change, equipping parents with the tools to support their child’s well-being while prioritizing their own. Passionate about making emotional health accessible for all, she is dedicated to helping families thrive one moment at a time.

The Keynote Speaker’s book is for sale during the conference in the main hallway.

IMAGINE...
100% MEDICAL COVERAGE

Did you know ...

- NYT: Americans borrow 88 billion dollars a year to pay out of pocket medical expense.
- One third of Go Fund Me money raised is to pay medical expenses.
- Over one trillion dollars of outstanding medical expenses is on Americans' credit reports.
- 43 percent of patients delay or skip care because of the high costs associated with their medical plan

Solutions for the unexpected, unknown and uncertain out of pocket medical expenses in your life

Financial well-being means being able to afford the cost of my medical treatments and prescriptions. SIHRA® helps employees avoid going into debt to pay medical expenses.

By increasing the diversity of medical plan choices, employers can deliver a more employee centric experience by eliminating out of pocket medical expenses.

We're the #1 brand implemented by employers for a medical plan rooted in empathy and compassion because it provides 100% coverage. Employees engage because it reduces financial inequity and income insecurity.

Our open channel approach allows for greater medical plan choice at every life stage. As a result, employees are free to elect medical coverage with no out of pocket expenses for themselves and their dependents which creates financial well-being.
