

Moving Checklist

Moving can be stressful—but starting early with a complete plan can make it far more manageable. Use this handy checklist to have your smoothest move yet!

8 weeks before

- ☐ Contact moving companies. Get quotes, compare offers, and after choosing one, book your move date.
- ☐ Save by asking around for boxes and other packing necessities, then purchase the rest.
- ☐ Sell, donate and dispose of unwanted belongings.
- ☐ Locate and carefully pack important documents like medical and vet records.
- ☐ Book flights to your new home, if needed.

2 weeks before

- ☐ If necessary, set up new utility accounts and cancel service with your existing providers effective after your move date.
- ☐ Check to see if you can set up or transfer your Ting Internet service to ensure you have internet access on day one in your new home.
- ☐ Start packing everyday belongings such as clothing, toys and tableware.
- ☐ Contact your local post office to set up mail forwarding.

1 day before

- ☐ Create your “moving day survival kit.” Include a change of clothes, toiletries, clean towels and medications.
- ☐ Head to bed early in order to be well rested for the big day.

4 weeks before

- ☐ Start packing non essentials including seasonal items, clothing and decor.
- ☐ Start clearing out storage areas like your garage, basement, attic and storage unit.
- ☐ Long drive to your new home? Have your car fully serviced!

1 week before

- ☐ Confirm your moving date and time with the moving company.
- ☐ Finish leftover food. The more you use, the less you'll have to transport or throw away.
- ☐ Pick out a week's worth of essentials like clothing and tableware to last until moving day; box the rest.
- ☐ Start cleaning. As you clear out rooms, vacuum and dust them as well.

Moving day

- ☐ Familiarize the movers with the area and items to be packed. Mention any concerns.
- ☐ If you're doing a DIY move, pick up the moving truck as early as possible.
- ☐ Do a final sweep of the house. Check closets and cabinets to ensure all belongings are removed.
- ☐ Pick up the keys to your new home. Head to your new home and start moving in!
