

THE BLACK VELVET BAND

Irish folksong for SATB Chorus and Piano

Arranged by Bruce Trinkley

THE BLACK VELVET BAND

*Tw'as in the town of Tralee, apprentice to trade I was bound
With a plenty of bright amusement to see the days they do go around.
Misfortune and trouble came o'r me which caused me to stray from the land
Far away from me friends and relations to follow her black velvet band.*

*So I went walking down Broadway not intending to stay very long.
When I met with a frolicsome damsel as she came atripping along.
A watch she pulled out of her pocket and slipped it right into me hand
And the very first day that I met her bad luck to that black velvet band.*

*Before the judge and the jury, the both of us had to appear
And gentlemen swore to the jewelry, the case against us was clear.
For seven years transportation right unto Van Diemen's Land
Far away from me friends and relations to follow that black velvet band.*

*So all ye brave Irish lads a warning take by me
Oh beware of them frolicsome damsels that trap young men in Tralee.
They'll treat you to whiskey and porter until you're unable to stand.
And before you have time for to leave them you're on to Van Diemen's Land.*

*Her eyes they sparkle like diamonds
You'd think she was queen of the land
With her hair thrown over her shoulders
Tied up with a black velvet band.*
