Attendance Matters

Please note that our attendance recording now includes an additional illness code. This means we can no longer accept 'unwell' as a reason for absence. We need to be more specific in identifying the particular illness so please bare this in mind when contacting school regarding absences. Cumulative attendance remains at 93.5%. Well done!

Year 3 News

Today we had our school photograph taken and the children looked lovely. And may I take this opportunity to thank you all for getting your children ready for school. This term we will be learning about 'Mountains, volcanoes and earthquakes' as well as plant life.

A warm welcome to those joining us in September 2025.

Welcome Mr. Beck!

We are thrilled to announce the arrival of our new Site Superintendent, Mr. Beck, who will be joining us after the Easter holidays. His wealth of experience and dedication to excellence make him a fantastic addition to our team.

Here are a few words from Mr. Beck himself:

I would like to introduce myself to everyone at Christ Church Upper Armley Primary. I am Mr. Beck your new site Superintendent and I want to express my excitement at starting work at your school.

Christ Church school is a magnificent building with so much character to admire and preserve. I am looking forward to aiding staff and pupils in ensuring the building is kept to a standard that you deserve.

Update on Our Free Breakfast Club

Our free Breakfast Club, part of the Government's new scheme, is off to a fantastic start! Since the summer term began, children have been enjoying a healthy breakfast of cereal, toast, fruit, and yogurts, along with the chance to play games and spend time with friends.

The relaxed and enjoyable start to the school day has made a noticeable difference in the children's energy and focus.

For those who need early childcare, our 7:30-8:00 am Breakfast Club continues to be available at £1 per session to cover staffing costs. If you haven't yet enrolled your child in either Breakfast Club, it's not too late! Please fill in the permission slip from the school office and return it to school. A signed form is required to ensure we can cater and staff appropriately.

Thank you for your support, and we look forward to continuing to provide a great start to the school day for your children!
