Adult Formation: Revealing Revelation

Colhoun Room | 10:15

New Adult Formation class on Sundays, Today, Nov. 9, & 16: Revealing Revelation: Revelation is undoubtedly one of the most misinterpreted, manipulated, and misunderstood books of the Bible. It is also, however, the book that most clearly defines and reveals what Christian hope is all about. Join the Rev. Dr. Dixon Kinser for a four-week study on what the book of Revelation is, what it is not, and why it might be better news than you think. Will he cover the rapture? Yes. The antichrist? Yes. All your other questions about Revelation? He will try! All classes in the study are standalone and do not require prior attendance. Sundays at 10:15 AM in the Colhoun Room

Mindful Dads Practical support in your parenting journey

Parlor | 10:15

Are you a dad or father figure looking for practical support in your parenting journey? Join our Mindful Dads series to connect with other fathers, find moments of peace, and explore ways to turn parenting into opportunities for spiritual growth. No prior experience in spiritual practices is needed—just an interest in growing as a parent and a person. Our 5-week series covers topics like fatherhood as a spiritual identity, turning frustration into a teacher, and sustaining the work of parenting. Come and be part of a community that understands and supports your unique journey. Contact group facilitator Tim King for more information: timothymichael.king@gmail.com

The Art of Remembering

Join us on All Souls Day as we explore how art can tell the story of love and loss and the ways we honor the living and the dead through creative expression. We will explore famous pieces from the art world, cultural expression around death and dying, and the creative ways we honor those we love. Sunday, Nov 2 from 2:30-4:30 PM at the Station. For more information, contact the Rev. Nancy Vaders at nvaders@stpauls-ws.org

Special Choral Evensong for All Souls Day

This evening at the 5:00 Choral Evensong, we will be commemorating all the faithful departed, also known as All Souls' Day. You are invited to bring photos or mementos of your loved ones to this service in remembrance of your beloved departed.

Episcopal Church Men Dinner and Speaker Series

Wednesday, Nov. 12 | 5:30 PM | Colhoun Rm.
Cost is $15 pp

Guest Speaker is BRIAN COLE, Chancellor, UNCSA. In 2020, the UNC Board of Governors appointed Brian Cole as the 9th Chancellor of the North Carolina School of the Arts. An accomplished musician, conductor, educator, and administrator, Brian previously served as the Dean of the School of Music at UNCSA, as well as the founding Dean and Associate Dean at conservatories in Spain and Puerto Rico. In addition to sharing information about UNCSA, Chancellor Cole will provide a progress report on the ongoing renovations at the Stevens Center.

Register to sign up now.
Scan the QR code at right.
RSVP by Friday, Nov. 7.

When sending in a memorial or honorarium, contact Emma LaBella at elabella@stpauls-ws.org to provide information on who it is from, where it is going, and who it is memorializing or honoring.

The Holidays are coming!

Angel Tree

Keep an eye out in mid-November for upcoming Angel Tree opportunities. This year, St. Paul's will be supporting families in need who have been affected by the recent layoffs throughout the school system. Our goal is to provide at least 20 families with gifts for Christmas Day. More details will be available as angel tree applications are completed. If you have questions, please reach out to Laura Pallavicini- Outreach Director- lpallavicini@stpauls-ws.org.

Little things that matter

Please continue to prayerfully consider how you can support our community during uncertain times. Diapers of all sizes, diaper wipes, pasta, rice, peanut butter and dog and cat food are high on the need list for Christ Beloved Community's food pantry. School supplies including tissues, glue sticks, copy paper, notebook paper and individually wrapped treats (nut free) are always needed. If you have items you would like to contribute to Christ Beloved's food pantry or a local school, please contact Laura Pallavicini:

lpallavicini@stpauls-ws.org for specific information.

Salvation Army Ringers Needed

Our friends at the Salvation Army are inviting the public to sign up to volunteer as bell ringers for the Holiday season. Interested volunteers can sign up at www.registertoring.com

ECW Bake Sale and Advent Calendar

Sunday Nov. 23 during the Parish Breakfast
Join us in supporting the work of the Episcopal Church Women (ECW) at this year's bake sale and Advent calendar sale on November 23rd during the parish breakfast. Funds raised by the ECW go towards outreach programs through our church and within our community.

Advent Calendar Raffle

There will also be an Advent calendar raffle throughout the month of November. Tickets are $5 each and will be available for purchase after the 9am service outside the Colhoun room on Sunday, November 9, and 16.

If you have questions or would like to receive information about volunteer opportunities for the bake sale or Advent calendar workshops please reach to one of the following:

Senior Lunch

Wed. November 19th | 12:30-1:30 | Colhoun A

Cost: $8.00 at the Door, no RSVP needed.

Guests are welcome!

Our guest speaker for this month's Senior Lunch will be Dr. Randall G. Rogan, Professor of Communication, Wake Forest University. A St. Paul's member, Dr. Rogan is a nationally and internationally recognized specialist in forensic discourse analysis of crisis negotiations, threat assessment, and communication of terrorism. One particular focus of his work has been the Middle East. Randall will speak specifically on the ongoing Israeli Palestinian conflict.

Please join us this month for this engaging discussion.
