St. Paul's Memorial Church

Choir and their Organist/Choirmaster, Deke Polifka from Charlottesville, Virginia visit us today. We welcome them to St. Paul's. They will be singing the 11:15 a.m. service with the St. Paul's Choir. They have spent the weekend together rehearsing and getting to know each other. We are delighted to have them with us.

Adult Formation: Revealing Revelation

Colhoun Room | 10:15

New Adult Formation class on this Sunday and next: Revealing Revelation: Revelation is undoubtedly one of the most misinterpreted, manipulated, and misunderstood books of the Bible. It is also, however, the book that most clearly defines and reveals what Christian hope is all about. Join the Rev. Dr. Dixon Kinser as we wind down this series on what Revelation is, what it is not, and why it might be better news than you think. All your other questions about Revelation? All classes in the study are standalone and do not require prior attendance. Sundays at 10:15 AM in the Colhoun Room

Mindful Dads Practical support in your parenting journey

Parlor | 10:15

Are you a dad or father figure looking for practical support in your parenting journey? No prior experience in spiritual practices is needed—just an interest in growing as a parent and a person. Our series covers topics like fatherhood as a spiritual identity, turning frustration into a teacher, and sustaining the work of parenting. Come and be part of a community that understands and supports your unique journey. Contact group facilitator Tim King for more information: timothymichael.king@gmail.com

RSVP by Friday, Nov. 7.

ECW "Crafternoon" Event

Sunday | Nov. 16 | 2:00

Join us on Sunday, 11/16 from 2-4 at the Station for an afternoon of crafting with the ladies of ECW. We will be working on creating handmade oyster shell trinket dishes for outreach fundraising, as well as creating felt ornaments for our celebrated St. Paul's traditional Advent calendar. Please bring seasonal cocktail napkins for the oyster shells, as well as your favorite Christmas sweet treat to share.

We look forward to seeing you for our "crafternoon!"

No need to RSVP, but for more information contact Anna Geras at annatgeras@gmail.com

Vestry Nominations

We will elect four new vestry members to serve a three-year term at the Annual Meeting on February 8, 2026. The vestry plays a vital role in guiding the life and mission of St. Paul's, and any confirmed parishioner may be considered. Do you feel called to serve, or do you know someone who would make a thoughtful and faithful vestry member?

Email Senior Warden Morris Friedman at rmorrisfriedman@gmail.com by Nov 30.

When sending in a memorial or honorarium, contact Emma LaBella at elabella@stpauls-ws.org to provide information on who it is from, where it is going, and who it is memorializing or honoring.

The Holidays are coming!

Angel Tree

Keep an eye out in mid-November for upcoming Angel Tree opportunities. This year, St. Paul's will be supporting families in need who have been affected by the recent layoffs throughout the school system. Our goal is to provide at least 20 families with gifts for Christmas Day. More details will be available as angel tree applications are completed. If you have questions, please reach out to Laura Pallavicini- Outreach Director- lpallavicini@stpauls-ws.org.

Little Things That Matter

Please continue to prayerfully consider how you can support our community during uncertain times. Diapers of all sizes, diaper wipes, pasta, rice, peanut butter and dog and cat food are high on the need list for Christ Beloved Community's food pantry. School supplies including tissues, glue sticks, copy paper, notebook paper and individually wrapped treats (nut free) are always needed. If you have items you would like to contribute to Christ Beloved's food pantry or a local school, please contact Laura Pallavicini:

lpallavicini@stpauls-ws.org for specific information.

Salvation Army Ringers Needed

Our friends at the Salvation Army are inviting the public to sign up to volunteer as bell ringers for the Holiday season. Interested volunteers can sign up at www.registertoring.com
