Adult Formation Keeping Time: How Living with our Liturgical Calendar Keeps Us Grounded

Sept 13, 20, and 27 at 10:15 AM | Colhoun Room

There are many demands on our time and many reasons our lives might feel like a rollercoaster. If we base our lives in the cycle of news or the demands of our professional or personal lives, we can easily feel worn out. The liturgical calendar is an ancient tool for spiritual practice and grounding our lives beyond Sunday morning. Join the Rev. Lucy Strandlund for an understanding of how we can live the rhythms of the liturgical calendar in our daily lives, grounding ourselves in God's time and embracing seasonality.

Education for Ministry

new groups begin this month!

Education for Ministry (EfM) is a lay theological education program developed by the School of Theology at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee. For more than 50 years, EfM has helped thousands of people deepen their understanding of Scripture, church history, theology and discover how their faith calls them into action in their daily lives. New EfM seminar groups will begin at St. Paul's in September for the 2026-2027 seminar year. Led by two accredited EfM mentors, this group welcomes anyone who wants to grow in faith, connect with others, and explore what it means to minister in the world. Both the classic four-year EfM track and the new one-year Wide Angle track will be available and participants can choose which path fits them best. A COMMUNITY
APPROACH TO
LITERACY PRESENTED BY
LOVE
LITERACY

TUESDAY | SEP 22, 2026 | 8 - 9 AM

Love Literacy is celebrating 25 years!

Tues. September 22 | 8-9 AM | Robert L. Strickland Center |
Forsyth Tech Community College.

You are invited to the Rise and Read breakfast.
on September 22. We'll gather over breakfast to celebrate 25 years of Love Literacy's impact and talk about the work ahead to ensure every child in Forsyth County has the opportunity to learn to read.

Join us for this year's conversation with Munro Richardson,
CEO of Read Charlotte and Editor/Researcher of Unconstrained Kids. Munro brings a unique perspective on what research tells us about how children learn—and how we, as a community, can help more kids become successful readers.

It's going to be a meaningful morning of connection, conversation, and a celebration of 25 years of making a difference. This is a free community event, but registration is required. Scan the QR code at the right to register by September 14th and share this information with others who you think might be interested in attending.

Pack 910 Boy Scouts Popcorn Sales

Pack 910 kicked off our 2026 fundraiser on the church lawn last Sunday. If you missed us, now until October 17 we will be raising money to support the Pack. Our initiative is to support kids who would like to be in the Scouts but may not be able to afford it and to help lower the cost of merit badges, dues, and camping trips for the families. Since some members of St. Paul's may have missed our kick-off on the lawn, we created a link for St. Paul's members to order online!! https://trails-end.com/store/scout/UYAIWX4W or scan the QR code at right.

Thank you for your support! We are blessed to be part of the St. Paul's family!
