The Governance of God: How to be Politically Christian in 2026

Sunday, October 11 | 10:15 AM | Colhoun Room

Using Bible study, church history, existential psychology, and cultural criticism, the Rev. Dr. Dixon Kinser leads participants through a four-week class exploring what it means to be Christian in our current political climate. Designed to take place during the 2026 mid-term election, this class mixes lecture, multi-media, and spiritual practices to resource Jesus followers who want to know how their faith can help them be faithful this election cycle.

The Basics of Being Episcopalian

Sunday October 11 | 12:30 PM | Colhoun B&C

Also known as "Confirmation Class," this series is for anyone new to the Episcopal tradition or who has been here a while and would like to brush up on the basics. What does it mean that we are both Episcopalian and Anglican? How do Anglicans read the Bible, pray, and worship? What makes this denomination different? Bring all your questions and meet others who are choosing to make this tradition their own.

This series meets two Sundays a month from October-April, culminating in our bishop's visit on April 11 with Confirmation, Reaffirmation, or Reception into the Episcopal Church. Email the Rev. Lucy Strandlund with any questions:

lstrandlund@stpauls-ws.org

St. Anne's Circle

Mon., October 12 | 12:00 PM | Colhoun Room B/C

Did you know that all St. Paul's women are members of our Parish's Episcopal Church Women (ECW)? Come meet Catherine Allen, our current ECW President and find out more about her and what St. Paul's ECW has planned for the year! All are welcome, lunch is $8 and no reservation is necessary. Contact: Peggy Slater peggyplater@gmail.com!

Pilgrimage in our Anglican Tradition

Sunday, Oct. 18 | 2:30 PM | The Station

This fall, join Dr. Mitch Oxford for a three-part lecture series exploring the perennial power of Canterbury (and of pilgrimage as a practice) for ordinary believers—from the English medieval past, across the ordeals of Reformation and Revolution, and to our global Anglican present. These classes are for anyone looking to learn more about our tradition and where it stands today.

All lectures will take place on Sundays at 2:30 PM at the Station, and all are welcome to attend.

Men's Ministry

Senior Lunch: with the Appalachian Strings

Wed., October 21 | 12:30 PM | Colhoun Room

Join us for our monthly Senior Adult lunch. We will enjoy music by The Appalachian Strings, a group of mountain dulcimer players led by teacher and performer, Carol Crocker. Come enjoy the music, fellowship and good meal! Lunch begins at 12:30 PM in the Colhoun Room. The cost is $8.00. No reservation is needed. Friends and guests are most welcome!

Senior Trip to 3P Farm

Thursday, October 29 | 9:30 AM to 2:00 PM | 3P Farm

Join us for a day on the farm! Our host is Laura Pallavicini, owner and operator of 3P Farm and St. Paul's own Director of Outreach. She'll show us around and tell us about her work in therapeutic riding and instruction. She'll also give us an inside look at what it takes to run a local farm here in the Triad. We'll tour the grounds, meet some of the animals, and learn about the programs the farm offers. Afterward, we'll have lunch together at the Town and Country Restaurant in King. Cost: $25, lunch included. Wear walking shoes. To register, contact the Rev. Nancy Vaders at nvaders@stpauls-ws.org
