Pastoral Care

If you have an urgent pastoral care need, please call 336-723-4391. If you do not speak to someone directly, follow the prompts for the clergy on call.

Hospital Visits: If you or an immediate family member are in the hospital, please let us know. We no longer receive a hospital admission list and we don't want to miss an opportunity to care for you and your family. Please reach out to the Rev. Nancy Vaders at nvaders@stpauls-ws.org or call the church office 336-723-4391 to notify us of a current or upcoming hospital stay.

Prayer Lists

St. Paul's maintains three prayer lists: a published list, a confidential list, and one for active military members. To add someone, please obtain their permission and contact Laura Hoffman at 336-723-4391, ext. 1208 with at least their first name, your name, and contact information. Names remain for one month unless renewed.

Giving to St. Paul's

Your generosity sustains St. Paul's ministries, programs, and outreach, helping us live out our mission of faith, love, and service.

The Governance of God: How to do the News Without Getting Sick

Sunday, October 25 | 10:15 AM | Colhoun Room

How does one stay informed in 2026 without being manipulated, exploited, or getting exhausted? Join the Rev. Dr. Dixon Kinser for a pastoral and practical conversation about how the news works, why it's broken, and what we can do as Christians to know the truth and allow the truth to set us free.

Pilgrimage in our Anglican Tradition

Nov 1 | Q&A with Guest Preacher, the Rt. Rev. J. Neil Alexander, Th.D.

Bishop Alexander has served as the Bishop of the Diocese of Atlanta and later the Dean and President of the School of Theology at Sewanee. He will be our guest preacher at the 9 and 11:15 AM services and will also join Dixon for a Q&A during the formation hour. He currently serves as the Custodian for the Standard Book of Common Prayer for the Episcopal Church.

Telling Our Story:
with the Rev. Brooks Graebner, Ph.D.

Sunday, November 8 and 15 | 10:15 AM | Colhoun Room

The Rev. Dr. Brooks Graebner is our diocesan historiographer and a beloved priest in our diocese. He reminds us that as Christians, “we strive to tell the story of our church as faithfully and as fully as we can.” This means a willingness to explore both moments we celebrate and moments we missed the mark. As we wrap up the year celebrating our Sesquicentennial, we will remember pivotal moments in racial justice and the Civil Rights era. Dr. Graebner has completed thoughtful research on our diocese and our own parish history and will share his presentation for two Sundays in November.

Shepherd's Center of Greater WS:
Beginning Jewelry Making for Older Adults

Sunday, November 11 | 9:00 or 11:30 AM session | The Station
