Ecclesiastes 3:11

BIBLE

The Prophet Jeremiah
Jeremiah 18:1-6, 29:11

ABOUT THIS WEEK

Have you ever wanted to speed up time to get to "the good parts"? This week, we learned about God's message to the prophet Jeremiah during a challenging time for Judah. While they might have wanted to fast-forward through their discomfort, the story of the potter and the clay reminds us that God shapes us into something beautiful.

TALK ABOUT IT

- Where did God ask Jeremiah to go?
- How is God like a potter?
- How are we like clay?
- Does God give up on us when we mess up?
- What can you do if you are frustrated and angry when you mess up?

PRAYER

God, thank you for always taking the time to forgive. Thank you for never giving up on us when we make mistakes. Give us the courage to turn away from our sins. Remind us, each time we mess up, that we are never beyond repair. The potter is still at the potter's wheel, and the clay can still be something awesome. Amen.
