- The trading session began on a strong footing, wi the KSE-100 Index climbing to an intraday high ear in the day. However, the initial momentum faded a investors opted for profit-taking and sectoral rotatio reflecting caution ahead of the central bank decision. Sentiment remained subdued in the latt half, ultimately dragging the index lower by th close. The market's downward trend was large driven by monetary policy concerns, as participan braced for possible policy tightening or a shift forward guidance.
- Market participation decreased to 426mn share from 606mn shares during the previous session (-30 DoD). Traded value decreased to USD88mn fro USD115mn during the previous session.
