Dawn - Ceiling Light

A re-imagining of the classic Dawn pendant, the Dawn ceiling light is made from pure Australian porcelain and is designed to illuminate with a flush, ceiling mounted design.

Dawn ceiling lights come with the option to select two tones from the Studio Enti colour palette - The ceiling mount and the shade allowing a unique personalisation and addition of character to the minimalist design.

Made without the addition of glaze and detail, the Dawn Pendants have a classic form and are available in the full range of Studio Enti range.
