Advantages of Eyrus

Safety Manager
Structure Tone

It's a good system that automatically registers who is onsite. This gives the company an opportunity to create headcount for the day. This saves time instead of having to get everyone reporting and creating employee charts. The system can be seen by different people in different departments so it streamlined the process."

"The system is is easy to understand. We live that we set it up to give us different reports and we can manage how often.."
