Advantages of Eyrus

Assistant Project Manager
Burns & McDonnell

"I use Eyrus most often to audit who was onsite and when to verify against the time we are charged. The team uses it track site wide headcount daily. I also use it historically to check when different positions began working on site."

"I like the ability to easily access our site personnel data, and the ability to organize and export that data for use other places. Organization of first scan in, last scan out and total time on site, etc. is a big improvement over previous systems."
