

STAGE THE CITY

Your voice, your stories, our city!

Nonsuch Studios is about to launch something BIG,
and we want you to be part of it!

- Creative theatre workshops in Bulwell, Sneinton and The Meadows
- Community led performances celebrating local voices and stories
- A huge Nottingham City Centre celebration in 2027 with YOU at the heart of it

ABOUT NONSUCH STUDIOS

Nonsuch Studios is a theatre company and arts charity producing new theatre, creative projects, festivals and transformational community engagement programmes across Nottinghamshire and the wider East Midlands. Founded in 2013, Nonsuch has spent the past 12 years working to drive our main mission that CREATIVITY IS POWER!

ABOUT STAGE THE CITY

Nonsuch Studios' 'Stage the City' is an exciting new two-year project in Nottingham! Thanks to a £150,000 Esmée Fairbairn grant, we're bringing a range of workshops to Bulwell, Sneinton, and The Meadows. Participants of all ages will craft and unleash new performances, sharing their unique Nottingham stories and experiences. This project connects communities and generations, culminating in a spectacular outdoor theatre event in Nottingham City Centre in 2027. Get ready for a surge of local creativity and stronger communities!

THEATRE SPECTACLE 2027

In 2027, Nottingham will celebrate the 100th anniversary of Little John, its iconic Council House bell, which chimes every 15 minutes and can be heard up to seven miles away. To mark this centenary, Stage the City will collaborate with Nottingham communities over two years, culminating in a massive theatrical spectacle in Old Market Square. This grand event will bring together hundreds of people from across the city to participate in a large-scale performance to truly stage the city!

CONNECT WITH US

We would love to connect with as many people, organisations, artists, libraries, faith organisations, schools, community hubs, and youth clubs as possible to help us deliver this ambitious project with you in your area.

- Connect us with community champions who can support the project by sharing the voices of their local community
- Become a Partner on 'Stage the City' to help us bring workshops to the people you work with
- Help us connect with the right people and the right places that need to know about Stage the City
- You run events/festivals in your local area that we can host performances at
