“[...] Man is an animal suspended in webs of significance he himself has spun.”

Clifford Geertz

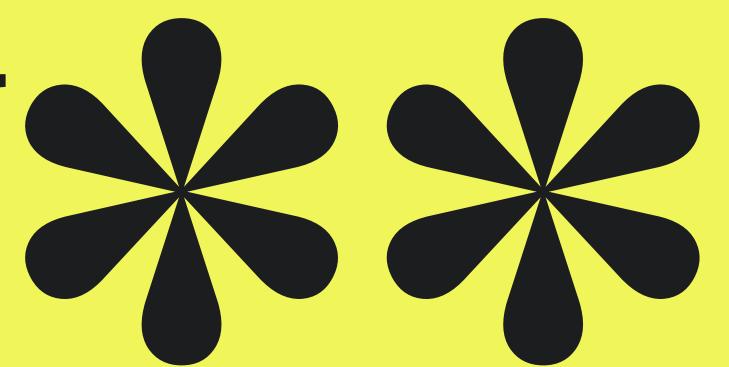

A dark, moody landscape of rolling hills and a small white house with a red roof on a grassy slope. The sky is overcast and dark.

HEIM

A wide-angle landscape photograph of a misty, mountainous region. In the foreground, a dark, rocky cliff face is partially obscured by low-hanging clouds. A small, light-colored bridge or path crosses a narrow gap between two rocky outcrops. The middle ground shows a steep, forested hillside with patches of yellow and orange vegetation, suggesting autumn. The background is dominated by a large, dark mountain peak, with more mist and clouds visible in the distance.
