

Win the chance to have your art in the spotlight at the Lú Festival of Light

Calling all young mortal artists!

The Lú Festival of Light is hosting a colouring competition!

Winners will see their masterpiece projected onto the iconic walls of St. Peters Church, West Street as part of this years Lú Festival of Light Urban Animation Projections. Imagine your very own artwork lighting up the town for everyone to see! This is a unique opportunity for young creators to be a part of the Lú Festival magical animations and showcase their talent on a massive scale

Winning artworks will join the epic stories of heroes, inventors, Gods and Goddesses, and tales from Irish Mythology projected onto St Peters Church.

The competition is open to children aged 12 and under, and we're looking for vibrant, creative, and imaginative designs that capture the spirit of the festival. You can download the colouring sheet from the Lú Festival website at www.lufestivaloflight.com or from the Love Drogheda website at www.lovedrogheda.ie.

So, what are you waiting for? Get colouring and let your imagination glow!

- Entries must be returned to the Love Drogheda BID office on Meatmarket Lane by 5PM MONDAY 5TH OCTOBER.
 - Entries must be accompanied by a completed entry form, signed by a parent/guardian.

The Lú Festival of Light is Ireland's largest outdoor urban animation festival and is part of Ireland's "Home of Halloween". The festival is a free, family-friendly event and will take place in Drogheda from 23rd to 26th October, bringing to life stories from Ireland's Ancient Mythology and animating some of Drogheda's most iconic buildings. For more information on the festival, including information on additional events taking place over the Bank Holiday weekend, please visit www.lufestivaloflight.com
