

1

WIRED UP

Use this high-functioning wall-mounted catchall to hold a variety of things—keys, umbrellas, bags, sunglasses, air plants, treasured keepsakes, etc. You can even slot mail into the spokes. Hang Up, $32; fruitsuper.com

2

LIGHT THE WAY

This wearable band combines four modes of light therapy—red, near-infrared, micro-vibration, and magnetic pulse—to help with aches and pains from exercise, chronic issues, or whatnot. Jazz Band Live Pro, $289; dnavibe.com

3

BETTER WATER

Install this filter directly to your cold water line under the sink, no plumber needed (promise). It uses a seven-stage filtration system customized to the H₂O in your area. Under Sink Water Filter, $253; hydroviv.com

Clever Items Little Helpers to Make Your Life a Lot Easier

BY HANNAH BAKER

4

SEAT MATE

One side of this chair-shaped blanket is cozy fleece and the other is a waterproof barrier, so you stay warm and dry at camp, on the deck, or at the stadium! The Chair Blanket, $50; thechairblanket.com

5

SPLASH PAD

Made of diatomaceous earth, this stonelike bath mat dries almost instantly, preventing mold and bacteria. Its rubberized pad prevents slips and slides. And it's pretty! Dorai Bath Stone Mat, $90; containerstore.com (see page 10 for a discount)

6

DOGGY DUDS

Well, hot diggity. This water-resistant jacket has two battery-powered warmth settings for particularly chilly days. On chilly nights, reflective parts keep him visible. (Read more about coats for canines on page 40.) Koldpwoof Heated Dog Vest, $110; ororowear.com