Approach to equality, diversity and inclusion

As a brand new organisation, we saw it as essential to embed an accessible and inclusive work in our approach and organisational structure from the very outset when we launched in 2024. As an organisation working towards increasing youth participation and access to the policy space, inclusivity is one of our core values. We also recognise the importance of engaging young people from all different backgrounds as a crucial component of a more diverse and inclusive marine sector as a whole, since young people will soon be leading in these roles. If we do not get it right at the early career stage, we risk increasing sector inequalities and widening the participation gap.
