Action on equality, diversity and inclusion

Organisations taking part in The RACE Report are asked to detail the action taken internally to support equality, diversity and inclusion. The list of actions covers a breadth of areas and incorporates commonly recommended actions to support progression of equality, diversity and inclusion, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list. Neither is one action intended to be prioritised over another, and actions may not be applicable to all organisations.

Approach to equality, diversity and inclusion

Opportunity Green is committed to ensuring equality, diversity and inclusion in our working and hiring practices. We are serious about creating and sustaining a working environment in which everyone has an equal opportunity to fulfil their potential irrespective of sex, gender identity, pregnancy or parental responsibilities, sexual orientation, religion or beliefs, marital status, civil partnership status, race, ethnic origin, colour, nationality, national or ethnic origins, disability, age or part-time status. We understand that climate change is a race issue and a gender issue, but we know diverse experiences and perspectives are not adequately represented in climate policy and the non-profit sector. We want to change this.

Opportunity Green is dedicated to broadening opportunities for groups that are underrepresented in climate spaces, and to building an inclusive team where people of different backgrounds can thrive. We are committed to creating an environment in which our employees and partners feel valued and respected, no matter their background or identity. We have a range of progressive, employee-centred policies and practices to ensure the wellbeing of our team. We strive to make our recruitment process as accessible as possible and allow every applicant to showcase their full potential regardless of gender, racial or ethnic identity or socioeconomic background. While we know we have a way to go, our aim is to make our workforce and practices truly representative and inclusive of all sections of society.
