Action on equality, diversity and inclusion

Organisations taking part in The RACE Report are asked to detail the action taken internally to support equality, diversity and inclusion. The list of actions covers a breadth of areas and incorporates commonly recommended actions to support progression of equality, diversity and inclusion, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list. Neither is one action intended to be prioritised over another, and actions may not be applicable to all organisations.

Approach to equality, diversity and inclusion

“

At The Ernest Cook Trust, belonging, equity, diversity and inclusion are becoming central to who we are. We want everyone; colleagues, partners and the people we support to feel they belong and can thrive. We take responsibility for tackling inequalities. That means looking honestly at our own data and practices and using insights such as the RACE Report and external expert guidance to guide our progress. Steps have included introducing inclusive recruitment practices, creating staff networks and reviewing pay and progression to ensure fairness. We're also investing in leadership training, so inclusive practice is part of everyday management. We welcome difference, listen to underrepresented voices through the work we do and keep learning. This is an ongoing journey, and we are committed to making steady, meaningful progress towards a truly inclusive workplace.
