Action on equality, diversity and inclusion

Organisations taking part in The RACE Report are asked to detail the action taken internally to support equality, diversity and inclusion. The list of actions covers a breadth of areas and incorporates commonly recommended actions to support progression of equality, diversity and inclusion, but is not intended to be an exhaustive list. Neither is one action intended to be prioritised over another, and actions may not be applicable to all organisations.

Approach to equality, diversity and inclusion

Our EEDI vision statement: By 2030, Rewilding Britain will have created a more hopeful, positive future for our planet and local communities, one that matches the scale of the challenges we face. We will be intentional in including people from diverse backgrounds and communities and be an organisation where everyone feels included and valued. We recognise that some benefit greatly from access and connection to nature, whereas others are unfairly excluded and underrepresented. We also know that the sector in which we work lacks diversity. We are on a journey to address these imbalances. We believe diversity brings benefits to our thinking and progresses us as a movement. When addressing imbalances in diversity and access to nature we will be courageous and collaborative. We will be guided by a diversity of expertise and lived experience, recognising that we are stronger when we work together. We understand that only through equity, diversity and inclusion can we achieve our mission. As in rewilding, it's important that we start by assessing where we are, identifying the processes that need fixing, and ensuring that we have a strong system from which wider benefits can be realised. Therefore, we initially commit to our colleagues and collaborators that by 2030 we will:

- Have people with the support, knowledge, competencies and confidence to lead in inclusive and equitable ways
- Know how to uncover bias in ourselves, and how to diagnose and address systemic bias at Rewilding Britain
- Welcome, support and value people with minoritised characteristics and different backgrounds.
- Give equal weight to a wide range of voices, with everyone having ways to speak, share ideas and influence decisions whether they are naturally quiet or at ease with speaking up.
